STATE SEEKS TO ENFORCE SUBPOENA AGAINST FOUR SEASONS SIDING AND WINDOWS COMPANY

On Wednesday, November 17, 2004, the Attorney General's Office of Consumer Protection filed a Petition to Enforce an Investigatory Subpoena in the Circuit Court of Kanawha County against Four Seasons Siding and Windows Company, a West Virginia corporation, and LaRue Causey, individually and as President of Four Seasons Siding and Windows Company. After receiving complaints against Four Seasons Siding and Windows Company, a subpoena was issued on November 8, 2004, at which time Four Seasons Siding and Windows Company had until November 15, 2004 to respond. Because Four Seasons Siding and Windows Company did not provide the Attorney General's Office with the requested information, the Attorney General's Office was forced to file a petition to enforce the Subpoena.
